50 YEARS AGO

After a summer hiatus, and threats of packing up and going away, Radio Six proved to have been bluffing, and after some tepid 'test transmissions' it was back in September 1969 with all guns blazing, a new tie-up with Tiger Television in Aberdeen, and a potential tie-up with the new Hospital Radio service for Glasgow. Back were the regulars - Gordon Macdonald (in Sgt Mac), Chris Seabury (in Chrisspin), Tony Currie (in Saturday Sounds, Night Spin and much else), Eric Macdonald (in Mac on religion), Tony Walker (in The Golden Age) and newcomer Colin Dalziel narrating 'This is Tiger TV'. This was not to be Colin's only appearance on the station! There was a complete performance of The Who's rock opera "Tommy" and comedy from the cast of "Laugh In" as well. Radio Six was back.
